Peter and Alex "Midnight Madrid" Quotes:

"A nice variety of different styles of playing from two fine young guitarists"

- Rick Whitehead

"This is a great CD! Whether you are a guitarist or just a music lover, there is something on here for everyone"

- Dan Leonard

"Every once in a great while talent becomes obvious in young players. Guitarists Peter Douskalis and Alex Freidah exemplify this very nicely with the release of their first CD; a wonderful blend of jazz, classical and pop, threading through their arrangements of well-known tunes, but especially with their very own compositions! Both can play, both are creative, but most of all both are musically intuitive and stylistically attentive!"
